STATE LAND OFFICE, CARSON CITY, NEVADA, October 23, 1900

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT THE State of Nevada, under the Act of Congress approved June 16, 1890, (21 Stat. 397), has filed in the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, list No. 233 of lands selected under said Act, and has applied for a patent for said lands; that a part of said list is open to the public for inspection, and a copy thereof, by descriptive subdivisions, has been posted in a convenient place in said United States Land Office for the inspection of all persons interested and the public generally.

Within the next sixty days following the date of this notice protests or objections against the claim of said State of Nevada to any tract or sub-division described in the list, on the ground that the same is more valuable for mineral than agricultural purposes, will be received and noted by the Register and Receiver of the United States Land Office at Carson City, Nevada, for report to the General Land Office at Washington, D.C.

The following are the sub-divisions described, to-wit:

S. 24 of SW 1/4, Section 20, T. 19 N., R. 18 E., M. D. M., containing 40 acres.

E. D. KELLEY, State Land Register of the State of Nevada. Date of first insertion October 24, 1900. 61t

Unnatural History.

The Bottle of Hair Tonic was in a self congratulatory mood. "Well," it boasted, "I think I can tell 'hair raising' ghost stories if any one can."

The coy Peach was very angry as well as "stirred up" when the house-keeper ladled her into the preserve jar. "Now, wouldn't that jar you!" she exclaimed, rather slangy.

The False Tooth spoke with icy hauteur: "I belong to the 'upper set'." "Possibly," retorted the bottled Kite incisively, "but let it be distinctly understood that I myself move in the highest circles."

The cracked piece of pseudo antique China spoke frankly: "Of course I'm not what I'm 'cracked up to be'." Then her femininity asserted itself, and she finished coyly, "But I'm not nearly as old as I look."

The angry Stick of Giant Powder stormed at the proud patrician Tack. "You have a 'big head' because you have laid a few carpets low." The Tack was silent. "I'm supreme," boasted the Powder, waxing bold. "No one can 'hold a candle' to me, and every one is afraid to 'blow me up'." "Well," retorted the Tack pointedly, at the same time striking a match, "nobody can walk over a member of the Tack family with impunity."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 16, 1900

THE STATE, PRESENT AND FUTURE

Politics, national and State, have been receiving the attention of the people for some time, to the exclusion of home interests. These interests make up life in its domestic relations, which most receive attention to promote individual prosperity, community prosperity, and prosperity in the State-at-large. Any neglect of the means that tend to build up the material interests in a community will have a present and future effect upon its prosperity, which will aid in procuring a waste of energy that should be used to develop and increase the wealth of the community.

When a review is taken of business improvement in the State for the last few months, there is no cause for complaint by any of us who know the past in Nevada. The general mining and stock interests are all that could be expected by the most sanguine among the people respecting the State's future. From every part of the commonwealth comes notice that capital and the people are engaged in the work of development, which will bring to these engaged in it remuneration, that will encourage further development by those who are at work, and will be a means to enlist others who have energy and are possessed of capital.

The advancement made in general business in the last eighteen months within our lines could not be estimated without an extended knowledge of the utter worthlessness that had taken possession of every department in business. Continued depression from direct causes operating upon the State's industries was everywhere present. It is not necessary to enter upon any review of these causes, as they should be and, we believe, are better understood at this time by the people than they have been at any preceding time in the history of Nevada.

The only estimate that can be successfully made of the difference in the present and in the past business conditions is included in a general comparison. The present declares increased prosperity wherever an examination is made, and it also declares that a change has come to the State which shows hope and energy are connected with the present, and that confidence in the future inspires the present hope and energy to prepare for a large future.

Respecting the past, all that may be truthfully said is that these motive powers to a world's progress were altogether absent. Present prosperity is healthy, and for that cause strong. It is like our mountains and hills—it is here to stay. Our mountains and hills will for all time largely furnish the required means to sustain and keep it in a healthy and strong life. It is a general law of nature that activity is present wherever there is health and strength, which inures to the business future of the State these three—health, strength and activity.

The person who has doubts about the presence of these three in the future in Nevada's business has not made an examination of the causes there are present and at work to secure their continued presence. It could not logically be expected that a man who is not in possession of the causes at work should be able to size up the effects, which are, like the distances to the fixed stars, beyond the range of figures, but will be beyond their range in the impossibility to secure real returns from the many business interests represented in its various future industries.

It may be said the writer is dreaming, but to show it is not a dream the following problem is given: Take the developed energy of the last eighteen months which is not less than five thousand times greater than the industrial energy that immediately preceded it and multiply it by the time of an average life and you will have as a result all we claim and more for the future industries of the State. One of the chief objects there is in making these statements is to secure the attention of the people to the rapid increase there is going on in business energy in the State but the real object is to secure their active co-operation for its continued development.

The writer is in earnest, who believes the near future of the State will surprise us through its business energy. The State is more in need of healthy legislation to aid and protect the people in their efforts to improve their condition than anything there is in the catalogue of its needs. Will the next legislature be equal to the work there is before it to secure health and energy in business. The natural resources of the commonwealth will not secure all there is required to make a great future to the State. Protection through just laws will have to be present as a companion to industry. Rotten borough laws, creating rotten borough systems, like rotten borough politics must be dispensed with together with those who seek to promote these devilish inventions which have ruled and ruined the State. It will be well for those who have been chosen to represent the people in senate and assembly to look well to the future.

HAPPENINGS IN NEVADA

News of All the Counties in the State Clipped From Exchanges.

Out of fourteen sheriffs elected in this State at the recent election, twelve were Democrats or Silver party nominees.

Yesterday morning at an early hour Mrs. James Denning died at her home in this city from neuralgia of the heart. —Appeal.

Senator Jones has said that he will not be a candidate for re-election to the United States Senate two years hence. —Carson News.

James, the 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Davivier, died at Golconda Monday of typhoid fever after an illness of about two weeks. —Silver State.

The body of Charles Hooker was found about three miles east of Beowawe last Sunday near the railroad track, badly mangled the skull being fractured and the arms and legs broken. Death was probably caused by a passing train.

The three Indians who were registered in Belmont precinct were not allowed to vote. The challenge, signed by twenty electors and sent to the registry agent failed to convince that officer that he was guilty of illegal registration and consequently he refused to erase the names of the challenged Indians. Another challenge was then drawn up and signed by 32 electors. This was presented to the judges of election on the morning of the 8th. Each Indian when he called for his ticket was informed that his vote was challenged and that he could not vote. —Courier.

Church Bazar.

The battenberg, point-lace ties, ladies' handkerchiefs, dolls for Christmas and all kinds of fancy work which the St. Margaret's Society will display for sale Friday afternoon and evening, in the vestry of the Congregational church, are dainty as well as useful. Refreshments will be served from 3 to 11 p. m., and the program of the evening will be delightful. Miss Langan, Miss Linn, Miss McCormack, Miss Hepburn, Miss Chase, Miss Peterson, Miss Shier, Miss Hall and Mr. Tobin are among the talent. Everybody cordially invited. 2t

Mason Valley Visitor.

Henry Wood of Yerington is in Reno for a few days. He speaks encouragingly of prospects in the agricultural line in his section and also reports activity in mining matters.

Stock Shipments.

Sixteen carloads of sheep, three carloads of cattle and three carloads of horses comprised the stock shipments from this point yesterday.

Mining Assessment Work.

Owners of unpatented mining claims have the remainder of this year in which to complete the annual assessment work required by law. To hold the possessory title to a mining location, not less than $100 worth of labor must be performed, or improvements made thereon annually, until the entry shall have been made. The first annual expenditure becomes due and must be performed during the calendar year succeeding that in which the location was made. Expenditure made or labor performed prior to the first day of January succeeding the date of location, will not be considered a part of nor applied to the first annual expenditure required by law. Failure to make the expenditure or perform the labor required upon a location, will subject a claim to relocation, unless the original locator, heirs, assigns or representatives have resumed work after such failure and before relocation.

A delinquent co-owner of a mining claim has 180 days from the beginning of the publication of delinquency notice in which to pay up. —Times Review.

For Speaker.

C. D. Van Duzer is favorably mentioned for speaker of the next Assembly. Mr. VanDuzer has all the necessary qualifications for the position. He is energetic and ambitious and would preside over the Assembly with fairness and impartiality. If Washoe county has no candidate for the position there is no one the JOURNAL could recommend with a heartier will than "Van," as he is familiarly known to his Reno friends, of whom he has legion.

Resignation Accepted.

The members of the Congregational church have accepted Rev. F. Vernon Jones' resignation with deep regret. It will take effect some time next month. It will be difficult to find a man who will fill this pulpit as satisfactorily as Mr. Jones has.

Hot Football.

Two picked elevens, each consisting of about twenty men, played a game of football on the University gridiron yesterday afternoon. Each side succeeded in shutting out the enemy. Four players were knocked out.

Prehistoric Copper Mine.

The first authentic discovery of traces of a prehistoric race in Alaska was made recently by prospectors in the foothills of Mount St. Elias, who in prospecting for placer diggings, discovered a copper mine which had been worked ages ago. In the immediate vicinity were picked up kettles, tools, spearheads and other articles of practical use, manufactured in a crude manner out of copper. It is evident that the copper came from three of the four veins in the immediate vicinity. The spot where the discovery was made is 6,000 feet above the sea level in the foothills of the mountain peak. —Boston Globe.

Astounded The Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of the Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from Dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Eucalypti Bitters which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well, can eat anything. It's a grand tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver. For indigestion, loss of Appetite, Stomach and Liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50 cents a bottle. S. I. Hodgkinson's Drug Store.

A Long Line.

A telegraph line has been completed between Seattle, Wash., and Skagway, Alaska, and is now in operation. The route is from Skagway to Atlin, thence over the old Atlin-Lillooet line to the Fraser river, thence to Ashcroft and on to Vancouver, from which place it runs to Seattle. The line between Skagway and Vancouver is that which the Canadian government has been engaged in constructing for the past four months. —Independent.

The Greased Poles.

A number of improvements are being made at the fire engine house. Steel poles are being put in place for the fire ladders to slide down on when an alarm sounds at night. This will make a difference of several seconds time in responding to a call.

Our worthy postmaster dropped in at the close of the spread and was given an ovation that stopped the

and caused the Palace orchestra to make three discords in a single bar.

A Splendid Project.

For nearly three score years Reno has been the distributing point for a large portion of northeastern California, but under the moseback administration of offices on the Nevada-California-Oregon railway, there has been little opportunity for the business men of Reno to become acquainted with their best customers.
An opportunity will be afforded by the free train to be run by the S. V.
and N.-C.-O. railroads.
A train load of northern Washoe and California people will arrive at 4.40
Saturday afternoon and remain here
until 9 o'clock Monday morning.

RICH ORES
OF LEAD

The New Jerusalem Mining Camp
and Its Mineral Prospects.

New Jerusalem is the name of a recently established mining camp on the Nevada-California-Oregon railway, twenty miles north of Reno, near Cold Springs.

It is yet but a city of tents, although the claim-owners expect to put up more substantial dwellings soon.
The claims being developed are eight in number. They are owned by Frank and Charles Norcross, J. H. Brown, Roy Sunderland, Jacob Greiner, George
Holesworth, D. W. Oatts and Charley Higley.

A JOURNAL representative visited the camp yesterday and found active work in progress. Several of the propositions show high grade stringers and large low grade bodies of ore, carrying gold, silver, lead and copper, the last named metal being in preponderance.

The formation is granitic diabase and porphyry. The ore bodies occur along the contacts of these rocks and display evidence of permanency.

As yet sufficient work has not been done to prove that the claims have other than speculative value. Only a few tons of pay ore are on the dumps,
the miners being at present employed tracing their leads.

The Fairview, owned by Brown & Higley, is the only mine that is really producing. Two men are gouging out an eight-inch galena stringer, or ledge.
The ore will run anywhere from 10 to 60 per cent lead, and carries from a dollar in gold and ten ounces in silver
up to high values in the noble metals.

MINES AND MINING

News of Nevada's Leading Industry Clipped From Exchanges.

A strike of three and a half feet of ore, assaying $100 per ton in gold, has been made in the Dexter mine at To-sarora.

If the Silver Peak mines pass into hands of men who mean business it will prove the greatest mining camp in the west.

John Magnuson has taken a contract
to drive 200 feet of the new Robust tunnel and three shifts are now employed at each end.

The Slip mill in Olinghouse gulch,
which has been shut down for repairs
for the past two weeks, will resume operations in a few days.

The Ophir mine and office have been wired and the wiring of the Central tunnel will be completed today and the workings lighted by electricity.—Enterprise.

The newly discovered camp 50 miles south of Belmont is attracting a great deal of attention and prospectors are arriving every day. The ore assays high in gold and silver.

Another carload of lead-silver ore was shipped last week by O. F. Jennings & Co., lessees of the Macon City mine. Ten tons from the Rabbitt mine were also shipped via Toano.

E. W. Clay, I. C. Slidham and Wm.
Covert shipped four loads of ore from their mine on Smith creek last week.
The ore runs from 76 per cent to 83 per cent lead, and several ounces of silver.

From Tascorora comes the report that eastern investors have tied up the control of the Tascorora Chief, and that in a short time the development of the property will begin on a very active scale.

White Pine county is enjoying the beginning of what promises to be a great mining boom. Senator Clark of Montana has bought several groups of mines and will sink a double compartment shaft upon one of the properties 500 feet deep.

Hon. J. G. Court informed us this week that his claims at Southern Klondike still continue to yield good ore and in considerable quantities. He is of the opinion that the camp will be a good one and that everyone will receive good compensation for labor expended on the claims.—Courier.

An exchange says that to attain the highest success in cyaniding ores the operator must be a proficient chemist
or assayer, or must employ others possessing these qualifications. Without knowledge of the chemistry of the process and mathematical sampling the results may be satisfactory, but it is
"guesswork" at best.

E. J. Kelley received from the new strike at South Camp this week, a box of samples of fine looking quartz, in which the gold is seen sticking out in shiny clusters by the naked eye.
About forty tons has been taken out by A. R. Gray. The walls are now well defined and the rock carries its richness throughout. Mining men consider this one of the most important discoveries ever made in this section.—Gardnerville Record.

The Parrott copper mine at Batte Mouane, which was compelled to close last August on account of a disastrous fire, which destroyed the hoist and all the buildings on the surface, has again started operations. New buildings and hoist were erected, a new compressor
plant, new boilers, engines, ore bins, etc., were installed and everything is in good working condition. The mine was yielding 500 tons of good ore daily
when the fire occurred.—Silver State.
